DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to a communication made on March 4, 2002.

Claim 1 is pending in this application.

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: The claim is not numbered. Appropriate correction is required.°

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bezos (6029141).

Regarding claim 1, Bezos teaches a method of selling subscriptions to an internet-based service with the help of existing customers comprising: a) providing an internet-based system that maintains accounts for said existing customers of said internet-based service (Column 2, lines 3 – 14); b) providing said existing customers with a unique code by email (Column 2, lines 41 – 47), which said existing customers can give to other potential customers of said internet-based service (Column 1, lines 62 – 66); c) receiving said code from a new customer at the time of sale, and if said code is recognized (Column 7, lines 21 – 34), automatically giving a discount to said new customer that is larger than any other promotional discount offered for said Internet-based service (Column 7, lines 46 – 51; Column 14, lines 38 – 51); d) adding a specified incentive compensation to the account of the said existing customer in lieu of said sale (Column 7, lines 36 – 45).
